In addition to the new record, the catalog titles stand on their own. Their first album A Crystal Vision has become a cult-classic, while their second album Darkness Visible (2007) is regarded as one of the best comeback albums of the decade. 'Till Death Do Us Part, Live in Germany (2008) was named by iTunes as one of the best live metal albums alongside Unleashed In the East, Live After Death, and Live Evil.

Sacred Oath's label Angel Thorne Music has recently partnered with WorldSound Label Group in an agreement to re-package, press and distribute the latest release as well as Sacred Oath's three catalog titles worldwide through E1 Entertainment (formerly Koch). Release dates have been set as July 14th in North America and July 10th in Europe.

Sacred Oath's is well known for the thrill of their live show, and we expect even more from them this time around with the momentum surrounding the latest release. WorldSound and Sacred Oath are committed to extensive worldwide touring in support of the new album. Once confirmed, television and radio support will be engaged.
